

Apology Letter to Friend for Not Attending Housewarming Party

Dear [Friend's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to sincerely apologize for not being able to attend your housewarming party. I was truly looking forward to celebrating this special milestone with you, and it was disappointing for me to miss such an important occasion.

Unfortunately, [briefly explain the reason for your absence, e.g., due to a prior commitment/work obligation/family emergency], I was unable to be there. Please know that missing your celebration was by no means intentional, and I deeply regret not being present to share the joy and excitement of your new home.

Your friendship means a great deal to me, and I am truly happy about this new beginning for you. I hope the housewarming was filled with love, laughter, and wonderful memories. Please accept my heartfelt apologies for not being there in person.

I would love to visit you soon, see your beautiful new home, and celebrate together in my own way. Let me know when you're free, and perhaps we can arrange a get-together just for us.

Once again, I'm so sorry for missing your big day. Wishing you all the best as you settle into your new place!

With warmest wishes,
[Your Name]
