Dear [Applicant Name],

Thank you for your interest in [College/University Name] and for submitting your application for admission to the [Year/Term] academic session. We recognize the time, energy, and effort you invested in your application process, and we truly appreciate your desire to become part of our campus community.

After a thorough and holistic review of all applications, we regret to inform you that we are unable to offer you admission to [College/University Name] at this time. This year, we received a record number of applications from a highly talented and competitive pool of candidates, making our decisions exceptionally difficult.

However, we are pleased to let you know about our Pathway Programs, which are designed to support students in achieving their academic and career goals, with the prospect of transferring into [College/University Name] in the future. These programs include:

- Guaranteed Admission Transfer Program: Begin your studies at a partner community college with a structured pathway to transfer after completing required coursework.
- Bridge Program: Participate in a year-long academic preparatory program that provides support and guidance, paving the way for future admission consideration.
- Online Certificate Courses: Enroll in foundational courses for credit, allowing you to build your academic record and strengthen a future application.

More information about these options, including eligibility and application instructions, can be found on our Pathway Programs website.

We understand that this news may be disappointing, but please know that this decision does not reflect your abilities or potential. We encourage you to consider our pathway programs as an excellent way to continue your academic journey and work toward your educational goals.

Thank you once again for your interest in [College/University Name]. We wish you every success in your academic endeavors and hope to see your application again in the future.

Sincerely,
Admissions Office
