Dear [Applicant Name],

Thank you very much for applying for the [Name of Scholarship] for the [Year/Term] cycle. We appreciate the time and effort you dedicated to your application and the thoughtful way you presented your achievements and aspirations.

After careful consideration of a highly competitive pool of applicants, we regret to inform you that we are unable to offer you the scholarship at this time. Please be assured that this decision does not reflect negatively on your accomplishments or potential; rather, it is a result of limited resources and the exceptionally strong quality of applications received.

If you are considering applying for future rounds, we encourage you to continue pursuing academic excellence and further strengthening your application. Building additional relevant experience in your field, developing your leadership skills, and crafting a more personalized and compelling essay may enhance your chances in future scholarship competitions.

We appreciate your interest in our scholarship program and your commitment to your educational and professional development. We wish you every success in your academic journey and hope you will consider applying again.

Sincerely,
