

Hey [Sister's Name]!

Happy Birthday, little sis! ☺ I can't believe how fast you're growing up-it feels like just yesterday we were fighting over the TV remote or making up silly dance routines in the living room. Now look at you! Another year older, but still the same goofball I love to tease (and protect, of course).

I hope your day is filled with all your favorite things-cake, presents, and maybe even a little extra attention from everyone (you totally deserve it). You always make our family so much brighter with your craziness, your laughter, and your love. I'm super lucky to have you as my sister.

Never forget how awesome you are, even when life gets a little tough. You're smart, kind, and so much fun to be around-I'm really proud of you. I can't wait to see all the amazing things you'll do this year. But for today, just enjoy being the queen of birthdays!

Love you to the moon and back! Save me some birthday cake, okay?

Your favorite sibling,

[Your Name]
