

Subject: Update on Your Application with [Company Name]

Dear [Candidate Name],

Thank you for taking the time to interview for the [Job Title] position at [Company Name]. We appreciate your interest in joining our team and the effort you invested throughout the selection process.

After careful consideration, we regret to inform you that we have decided not to proceed with your application. While we were impressed with your enthusiasm and background, we observed a few areas during the interview process where there is room for further development:

- Communication Skills: At times, your responses lacked clarity and structure, making it difficult to fully understand your thought process.
- Technical Knowledge: Some responses indicated gaps in specific skills required for the role, such as [insert specific technical area, e.g., programming languages, relevant frameworks].
- Problem-Solving Abilities: When presented with situational or problem-solving questions, we noticed you struggled to articulate a clear and logical approach.

We hope this feedback is helpful as you continue to develop your professional skills. We encourage you to work on these areas and reapply in the future, as we believe you have potential and would welcome another application after you have gained further experience.

Thank you again for your interest in [Company Name]. We wish you every success in your job search and future career.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
