Dear [Applicant Name],

Thank you for applying for the [Name of Scholarship] at [Institution/Organization]. We appreciate your interest in furthering your education and recognize the effort you invested in your application.

After careful consideration of all applications, we regret to inform you that you have not been selected as a recipient of the scholarship this year. The decision was particularly difficult due to the large number of strong applications we received.

We encourage you not to be discouraged by this decision. Many successful applicants have applied more than once before receiving the scholarship. If you wish to reapply in the future, here are a few tips to enhance your chances of success:

- Academic Improvement: Strive to enhance your academic achievements and maintain a strong GPA.
- Recommendation Letters: Seek recommendation letters from individuals who know your abilities and character well, especially teachers or mentors relevant to your field of study.
- Tailored Essays: Carefully tailor your application essays to address the scholarship's goals and criteria, ensuring they reflect your genuine aspirations and suitability.
- Meet Deadlines: Keep track of all submission deadlines and ensure that your documents are complete and submitted on time.
- Review Feedback: If specific feedback was provided, review it carefully and address those points in your next application.

Thank you once again for your interest in the [Name of Scholarship]. We wish you all the best in your academic pursuits and encourage you to apply again in the next application cycle.

Sincerely,

[Scholarship Committee Name]
