Dear [Applicant Name],

Thank you for your interest in the [Name of Scholarship] and for submitting your application for consideration. We appreciate the time and effort you dedicated to the application process and the enthusiasm you have shown for advancing your academic and personal development.

After careful review of your application and supporting documents, we regret to inform you that we are unable to offer you the [Name of Scholarship] at this time. The selection process was highly competitive, with a large number of exceptionally qualified candidates applying for a limited number of awards. As a result, our selection committee faced the challenging task of making final decisions based on various academic, personal, and extracurricular criteria.

Our feedback indicates that, while your application demonstrated strong potential and commitment, there are certain areas that could be further enhanced to improve your chances in future scholarship applications. Specifically:

- Academic Performance: Consider maintaining or improving your academic grades or pursuing advanced coursework aligned with your field of interest.
- Extracurricular Involvement: Engage in more leadership roles or community service activities to showcase a well-rounded profile.
- Application Materials: Further refine your personal statement and recommendation letters to clearly articulate your goals, achievements, and the impact you wish to make.

We strongly encourage you to continue pursuing your educational ambitions and to apply again in the future. Many successful recipients have improved their applications by building on constructive feedback and broadening their experiences.

Thank you again for your interest in the [Name of Scholarship]. We wish you all the best in your academic endeavors and future scholarship applications. Please feel free to reach out to our office if you would like further feedback or guidance moving forward.

Sincerely,
