Dear [Applicant Name],

Thank you for your interest in the [Program Name] at [University Name]. We appreciate the time and effort you devoted to your application.

After careful consideration, the admissions committee regrets to inform you that your application has not been successful. The primary reason for this decision is that you have been deemed overqualified for the program. Our assessment indicates that your academic background, skills, and experience significantly exceed the requirements and intended rigor of the course.

We recognize your impressive qualifications and accomplishments. However, we are concerned that this program may not provide the level of engagement or educational value appropriate for your advanced capabilities. The curriculum is designed to cater to individuals at a different stage in their academic and professional journey.

We encourage you to explore other programs or opportunities within [University Name] or elsewhere that are better aligned with your expertise and career objectives. Please do not hesitate to reach out to our admissions office if you would like guidance on alternative options or have any questions.

We wish you every success in your future academic and professional endeavors.

Sincerely,

[Admissions Officer Name]
