Dear [Applicant Name],

Thank you for your interest in attending [College/University Name] and for taking the time to submit your application for admission. We appreciate your effort and the achievements highlighted in your application materials.

After careful consideration by our admissions committee, we regret to inform you that we are unable to offer you admission for the upcoming academic year. This decision was not made lightly, as we had an exceptional pool of candidates, many of whom, like yourself, demonstrated remarkable potential and accomplishments.

We understand that this news may be disappointing, but we want to emphasize that this decision does not reflect your abilities or your capacity to achieve great things. Admissions is a highly competitive process, and many factors come into play when making our final selections.

Please remember that this is only one step in your academic journey. Your strengths, ambition, and dedication to learning are evident from your application, and we have every confidence that you will find success and fulfillment at another institution. Many accomplished individuals have faced setbacks, only to discover new paths that led to their greatest achievements.

We encourage you to continue pursuing your goals and exploring your passions. Perseverance, adaptability, and resilience are important qualities that you have already demonstrated, and they will serve you well as you move forward.

We wish you all the best in your future academic and personal endeavors. Thank you once again for your interest in [College/University Name] and for sharing your story with us.

Sincerely,

[Admissions Office/Admissions Committee]
