My Dearest Mom,

I hope you are doing well! I am having such a wonderful time here in Shimla that I couldn't wait to write and tell you all about it. The weather is just perfect-cool and breezy with plenty of sunshine. I really wish you were here to enjoy these beautiful hills with me.

Every morning, we go for a long walk along Mall Road, and the mountain air feels so fresh. Yesterday, we went to Kufri and had a blast riding horses and taking lots of photos. Remember when we visited this place together last time? It brought back so many happy memories!

The highlight so far has been our trip to Jakhoo Temple. The view from the top was just breathtaking, and I even managed to spot a couple of playful monkeys. In the evenings, we relax in the garden, sipping hot cocoa and laughing together.

I miss your home-cooked food, especially your delicious parathas! But don't worry, I'm eating well here. I'll make sure to bring you some apples from the market when I come back.

Take care of yourself, Mom. I miss you so much and can't wait to tell you all my stories in person. Give my love to Dad and everyone at home.

Lots of love,
Riya
