Dear [Applicant Name],

Thank you for applying to the [Scholarship Name]. We truly appreciate the time, dedication, and effort you invested in your application. The selection process was highly competitive, with many outstanding candidates this year.

After careful consideration, we regret to inform you that we are unable to offer you the scholarship at this time. Please understand that this decision does not diminish your accomplishments or your potential.

Feedback on Your Application

- Strengths: Your academic achievements and commitment to [mention any relevant extracurricular or community service] were impressive.
- Areas for Improvement: We encourage you to provide more detailed examples of your leadership experiences and clarify how this scholarship aligns with your long-term goals.
- Supporting Materials: Consider strengthening your personal statement by sharing a specific challenge you overcame and the lessons learned from that experience.

Tips for Future Applications

- Review the scholarship criteria carefully and tailor your application to emphasize how you meet each requirement.
- Seek feedback on your personal statements from teachers, mentors, or peers to ensure clarity and impact.
- Highlight unique experiences or perspectives that set you apart from other applicants.
- Double-check all supporting documents for completeness and accuracy.

We hope this feedback is helpful and encourages you to continue pursuing your goals. We wish you every success in your academic journey and encourage you to apply for future opportunities with us.

Sincerely,
