

Teacher Resignation Letter Sample Due to Low Salary

This letter provides a teacher resignation letter sample due to low salary, designed to professionally communicate the decision to leave a teaching position because of inadequate compensation. It highlights the importance of expressing gratitude for the opportunity, maintaining respect and professionalism, and clearly stating the reason for resignation related to salary concerns. This sample assists educators in crafting a concise and respectful resignation letter that addresses their financial needs while preserving positive relationships with the school administration.

Sample Teacher Resignation Letter

[Your Name]
[Your Address]
[City, State, ZIP Code]
[Email Address]
[Date]

[Principal's Name]
[School's Name]
[School's Address]
[City, State, ZIP Code]

Dear [Principal's Name],

I am writing to formally resign from my position as [Your Position] at [School's Name], effective [Last Working Day, typically two weeks from the date of this letter].

This decision did not come easily as I have greatly valued my time teaching at [School's Name] and appreciate the opportunities for personal and professional growth I have experienced here. Working with my students and colleagues has been both rewarding and fulfilling.

Unfortunately, due to financial reasons-specifically, the current salary level, which is not sufficient to meet my personal and family needs-I find myself compelled to seek other opportunities. I believe this decision is necessary for my long-term well-being, though I regret having to step away from this supportive community.

Please let me know how I can help during the transition period to ensure a smooth handover of my responsibilities. I am committed to maintaining a positive and professional relationship and ensuring that my departure does not disrupt our students' progress.

Thank you again for the support and encouragement over the years. I wish [School's Name] and my colleagues continued success.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]