

Dear [Mentor's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to express my heartfelt gratitude for your invaluable support and the generous referral you provided for my graduate school application. Your belief in my potential and your willingness to advocate on my behalf have made a profound difference in this important chapter of my academic journey.

I truly appreciate the time and thought you devoted to writing my recommendation. Your encouragement and guidance throughout my studies have played a significant role in my personal and professional growth, and your endorsement has opened new doors for me as I pursue my goals.

Thank you once again for investing in my future. I am deeply grateful for the confidence and opportunities your support has given me, and I look forward to making you proud as I take this next step.

With sincere appreciation,
[Your Name]
