

Dear [Cousin's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well! I just had to write and share some super exciting news with you-guess what? I won the [name of competition] at school!

The competition was really tough this time. There were so many smart and talented students taking part. I spent a lot of time preparing-staying up late, practicing every day, and even getting a bit nervous before the big day! On the day of the event, my heart was beating so fast, but as soon as they announced my name as the winner, I couldn't believe it. I was so happy and proud of myself!

I couldn't wait to tell you because I know you always cheer me on. Your messages and phone calls before the competition really gave me the confidence boost I needed. Thank you so much for being such a great cousin!

We should definitely celebrate next time we meet. I can tell you all about the competition in detail-it was such a cool experience. Let me know when you're free, and maybe we can go out for ice cream or something fun.

Write back soon and let me know how you're doing. Miss you!

Lots of love,

[Your Name]
