

Hey Alex,

I hope this letter finds you well! I just got back from the most amazing holiday and I couldn't wait to tell you all about it. It was seriously one for the books!

This time, we went to the beautiful beaches of Goa. The moment we arrived, the warm sun and the sound of the waves instantly made me forget about all the stress from school. You know me-I was in the water within five minutes of arriving!

We spent our days exploring colorful markets, trying all sorts of delicious street food (you would've loved the spicy seafood!), and going on endless beach walks. One day, we rented scooters and rode all the way to an old Portuguese fort. The view from the top was breathtaking; I took tons of photos and thought how much fun it would be to have you there with me. At night, we sat around bonfires, sharing stories and laughing until we couldn't breathe.

I also tried jet skiing for the first time! At first I was terrified, but then it turned out to be so much fun-exhilarating, actually! I even made a few new friends from different parts of the country, and we exchanged music playlists and local stories. It's amazing how traveling lets you discover not just new places, but new people and cultures too.

Honestly, I wish you could have been there with us. It wasn't the same without you, and the next beach adventure has your name written all over it. Let's plan something together soon, okay?

Catch up soon! And don't forget to tell me about your summer adventures as well-I want to hear everything!

Take care,
Sam
