

Dear Grandma and Grandpa,

I hope this letter finds you both in good health and high spirits. I've just returned from an amazing adventure, and I couldn't wait to tell you all about it!

Last week, Mom and Dad took me to the mountains for a hiking trip. The journey there was so exciting-rolling hills, sparkling rivers, and flocks of birds soaring across the sky. When we reached our cabin, I felt like we were living in a storybook!

Every morning, we woke up early to the sound of chirping birds. One day, we hiked along a winding trail that led us to a beautiful waterfall. The water rushed down in a silver sheet, and the cool mist tickled my face. I even dipped my toes in-it was freezing, but so refreshing!

At night, we made a cozy fire and toasted marshmallows under the stars. I saw the brightest shooting star and made a wish (I can't tell you what it was, or it might not come true!). I thought of you both when I saw the twinkling sky, remembering our backyard campouts together.

I missed you so much on this trip. I kept imagining how much fun you would have had exploring with me and telling me stories about when you were young. Thank you for always encouraging me to be adventurous and for sharing your love of nature with me.

Can't wait to see you both soon and show you the pictures I took! Send my love to everyone, and give yourself a big hug from me.

Lots of love,
[Your Name]
