Dear [Sibling's Name],

Hey!

Happy New Year, [Bro/Sis/Nickname]! I hope this letter finds you with the biggest smile and lots of excitement for the coming year.

Can you believe another year has gone by? It feels like just yesterday we were [insert funny or memorable memory from last year, e.g., binge-watching shows, baking disaster, family trip]. I swear I'll never forget how much we laughed – it's those moments that make everything so special.

I've been thinking about all the highs and even the occasional lows of the past year. I'm so grateful to have you beside me through it all. Here's to us, making each year better (and crazier) than the last!

For this New Year, I hope it brings you loads of happiness, success in whatever you do, and of course, tons of adventures (some of which I hope involve me!). Let's keep making amazing memories together-I already can't wait for [mention any upcoming plan/trip/event or wish for a get-together].

Enjoy the celebrations, eat lots of your favorite treats, and remember to save some stories for me! Wishing you all the love, laughter, and happiness in the world.

Miss you and can't wait to catch up more soon.

Lots of love,

[Your Name/Nickname]
