

Hey [Friend's Name],

I hope you're doing well and enjoying your summer! I just wanted to write and tell you all about my summer vacation this year. Honestly, it's been one of the best summers yet!

Last month, my family and I went on a road trip to the beach. We spent a whole week soaking up the sun, swimming, and collecting seashells. Remember how much we struggled to build sandcastles last year? Well, guess what-I managed to make a tower that actually stayed up this time! I wish you'd been there to see it (and to help me defend it from my little brother's *â€œ*monster attacksâ€).

Besides chilling at the beach, I also learned to surf! It was tricky at first, but after a few hilarious falls, I finally caught a wave. It felt amazing! In the evenings, we'd all gather around a bonfire, roast marshmallows, and tell silly stories. It made me think of our late-night snack sessions during school breaks.

How is your summer going? Have you traveled anywhere or tried something new? Let's catch up soon-I'd love to hear all your stories. Maybe we can plan a trip together next summer!

Take care and write back when you can. Miss you!

Your friend,

[Your Name]
