Re: Character Reference for [Defendant's Full Name]

Dear Judge [Last Name],

I am writing this letter to offer my character reference for [Defendant's Full Name], whom I have known for [number] years as [explain your relationship, e.g., a friend, colleague, family member, etc.]. During this time, I have come to know [Defendant's Name] as a person who is [briefly describe positive qualities; e.g., responsible, kind-hearted, supportive to friends and family, etc.].

While I understand the seriousness of the charges before the court, I have personally witnessed [Defendant's Name] make sincere efforts towards personal growth and change. [He/She/They] have shown genuine remorse and a commitment to addressing the issues raised. For example, [Defendant's Name] has been actively involved in [community service, counseling, anger management courses, rehabilitation programs, etc.], demonstrating a true willingness to become a better person.

Throughout our relationship, I have never observed any behavior from [Defendant's Name] that would suggest a tendency towards violence. In fact, [he/she/they] is often someone others turn to for help and support. [He/She/They] have built positive relationships within the community and shown a consistent pattern of responsible behavior.

I respectfully ask the court to take into consideration [Defendant's Name]'s background, positive attributes, and recent efforts towards rehabilitation when making a decision regarding this case. I am confident that, given the opportunity, [he/she/they] will continue to demonstrate growth and positive change.

Thank you for your time and consideration of my letter.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
