

Example Rejection Letter for Manuscript Submission After Peer Review

Date: [Insert Date]

Dear [Author's Name],

Thank you for submitting your manuscript entitled "[Manuscript Title]" to [Journal Name]. We appreciate the opportunity to consider your work.

After a thorough evaluation involving expert peer review, we regret to inform you that we are unable to accept your manuscript for publication in our journal. The reviewers provided detailed and considered feedback, which has been attached for your reference.

The principal reasons for this decision are as follows:

- [Summary of Key Reviewer Concerns, e.g., "The study's methodology lacked sufficient rigor and clarity."]
- [Another Reason, e.g., "The originality and significance of the findings did not meet the journal's criteria."]
- [Journal Specific Reason, e.g., "The manuscript falls outside the current focus and scope of our journal."]

Please note that this decision does not reflect a lack of merit in your work, but rather its alignment with our publication standards and editorial priorities. We encourage you to consider the reviewers' feedback to strengthen your manuscript and submit it to a more suitable journal.

Thank you again for your interest in [Journal Name]. We wish you every success with your research and future submissions.

Sincerely,

[Editor's Name]
