

Letter Template: Informal Letter to Grandparents about School Exam Results

Below is an example letter you can use as a template:

Dear Grandma and Grandpa,
I hope this letter finds you both in good health and high spirits. I have been thinking of you a lot lately and wanted to share some exciting news about my recent school exam results. I am happy to tell you that I did quite well in my exams this term. I scored the highest marks in English and Science, which made me really proud. Mathematics was a bit challenging for me, but I worked hard and improved significantly. I was a bit nervous before getting the results, but now I am feeling relieved and motivated. We are planning a small celebration at home, and I wish you could be here with us. Thank you for all the love and encouragement you always give me. I look forward to hearing from you soon and hope to see you in the holidays.
Sending you lots of love and warm hugs,
Your loving grandchild,
[Your Name]

Tips for Writing Your Own Letter

- Start with a warm and affectionate greeting.
- Share your results honestly, mentioning subjects you excelled in and any challenges faced.
- Express your feelings about the outcomes—excitement, relief, or determination to improve.
- Include personal touches about celebrations or future plans.
- Close with gratitude, love, and good wishes.
