Dear Grandma and Grandpa,

I hope this letter finds you both happy and healthy! With Thanksgiving around the corner, I wanted to take some time to let you know how thankful I am to have you in my life. The holidays always remind me of all the wonderful memories we've shared together-especially those big family dinners at your house (nothing beats Grandma's pumpkin pie!).

This year, things have been a bit busy for us. Last weekend, we all went apple picking, and we made a pie that almost turned out as good as yours. Mom still says she needs your secret to getting the crust just right! Dad says hello and wants you to know he's planning on deep-frying the turkey again-fingers crossed it doesn't end up as another "crispy" experiment.

I really miss our Thanksgiving stories by the fireplace and hope you'll be able to join us this year! If not, we'll make sure to video call so you can see everyone (and especially so you don't miss little Jake's crazy turkey costume).

Thank you for always making our holidays special and for being such an important part of our lives. I am so grateful for the love, warmth, and laughter you both bring to the family. I can't wait until we can see you soon-holidays just aren't the same without you!

Wishing you both a happy Thanksgiving filled with love and good food. We love you so much!

With lots of love,
