

Hey Sam!

I hope this letter finds you well. I have some amazing news to share - I'm finally graduating! After all the hard work and late nights, the big day is just around the corner, and there's no way I'd want to celebrate without you.

We're throwing a graduation party on Saturday, June 15th at 6:00 PM at our house (you know, the usual spot!). It's going to be a relaxed evening with good food, music, and, most importantly, all the people who've supported me along the way - which definitely includes you!

I really hope you can make it! It wouldn't be the same without one of my favorite cousins there. Let me know if you can come, and feel free to bring anyone from your family along too.

Looking forward to catching up and celebrating together!

Much love,
Jess
