

Hey [Friend's Name],

How's it going? I hope everything is awesome with you! I have some big news to share-I'm going to study abroad in [Destination Country/City] for the next semester, and I couldn't be more excited. ðŸ˜~

I chose [Destination] because I've always wanted to experience life there-think of all the cool places I'll get to see and all the delicious food I'll try! Plus, the courses at [University/School Name] look amazing and totally match what I want to study. I'm hoping to learn a lot both in and out of the classroom.

I know it's going to be a bit of a culture shock-the customs, language, and day-to-day stuff will be so different from home. But honestly, I can't wait to meet new people and make friends from all over the world. I'm a bit nervous about missing everyone here (especially you!), but I feel like this is a once-in-a-lifetime adventure.

I'm already making a list of places I want to visit and things I want to try, so expect plenty of photos and stories! Let's make sure we keep in touch-I don't want to lose track of your news while I'm away. Maybe you could come visit if you get the chance?

Anyway, just wanted to share the news. Let's catch up soon before I go!

Take care,
[Your Name]
