

Hey [Sibling's Name],

I just heard the awesome news - congratulations on winning your sports competition! I'm so proud of you! I know how hard you've been working and training for this, and seeing all your dedication pay off is seriously inspiring.

You totally deserve this win. All those early morning practices and all the sweat and effort you put in finally paid off, and I couldn't be happier for you. Winning isn't easy, but you showed everyone just how capable you are with your determination and spirit.

I wish I could have been there to cheer you on, but you definitely had my support from afar. Let's celebrate soon - you earned it! Don't stop here, though. I know this is just the beginning, and there will be even more victories in your future.

Once again, congrats champ! So proud to be your [sister/brother].

Lots of love,
[Your Name]
