

Dear Aunt Maria,

I hope this letter finds you in great health and high spirits! I've been thinking of you so much lately and wanted to share some wonderful news â€“ I've officially graduated!

The graduation ceremony was absolutely beautiful. Walking across the stage to receive my diploma was such a proud and emotional moment. I couldn't help but remember all the times you encouraged me to keep going, even when the studies got tough. Your calls, letters, and little surprises always lifted my spirits. Thank you so much for believing in me and supporting me every step of the way!

I graduated with honors, which was a pleasant surprise! The whole family was there to cheer me on, but I deeply missed having you by my side. We all took a lot of photos, and I can't wait to show them to you!

Now that I've graduated, I'm considering a few options: either pursuing further studies or searching for an exciting job in my field. I'm still figuring things out, but I'll keep you updated as soon as I make a decision.

Once things settle down, I would love to come visit you. It's been too long since our last catch-up, and I truly miss our wonderful chats and laughter. Please let me know when is a good time, or maybe you can visit us soon!

Thanks again for everything, dear Aunt Maria. I'm so grateful to have you in my life.

With all my love,

Sophia
