To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter in support of the spouse visa application for [Applicant's Full Name] and [Spouse's Full Name]. I have known the couple for [number] years, and during this time, I have had the privilege of observing their relationship develop and grow stronger.

I first met [Applicant's Name] and [Spouse's Name] in [describe context, e.g., at a mutual friend's gathering, at work, etc.] in [year]. From the beginning, it was clear that they shared a loving and committed relationship, grounded in mutual respect and trust.

Over the years, I have spent considerable time with them both in social and family settings. Their interactions are always filled with affection and genuine care for one another. I have seen them support each other through various life events and share household responsibilities. They have always presented themselves as a genuinely devoted couple.

I sincerely believe that their marriage is authentic and based on true commitment. I have no doubt in their intention to build a future together as spouses. I confidently support their visa application and hope that you will consider this letter as evidence of their genuine relationship.
