Thank you for submitting your recent grant application to [Grant Program Name] at [Your Organization Name]. We sincerely appreciate the time, effort, and dedication that your team invested into your proposal. [Project Title]. Your commitment to advancing [briefly state the applicant's mission/cause area] is truly inspiring.

After a thorough and thoughtful review process, our grant committee has decided not to fund your application in this grant cycle. We understand that this news may be disappointing, and we wish to assure you that this decision was not a reflection on the merit of your important work, but rather the result of a highly competitive selection process and limited resources.

Our reviewers offered the following feedback on your application, which we hope will be constructive as you consider future submissions:

- Strengths observed: [e.g., Clear project goals, strong leadership, community impact, etc.]
- Suggested areas for improvement: [e.g., Further detail needed on program evaluation methods, clarification of budget items, deeper community engagement, etc.]

Please know that our decision does not diminish the value or necessity of your work. We encourage you to consider reapplying during our next grant cycle.
