

Subject: Update on Your Job Application

Dear [Applicant Name],

Thank you for your interest in the [Job Title] position at [Company Name] and for the time you invested in submitting your application.

After careful review of your qualifications and experience, we regret to inform you that you have not been selected to proceed to the interview stage for this position. We received a large number of applications from many qualified candidates, which made our decision very challenging.

We sincerely appreciate your interest in joining our team, and we encourage you to apply for future openings at [Company Name] that match your experience and career goals.

Thank you again for considering [Company Name] as a potential employer. We wish you every success in your job search and future endeavors.

Best regards,

[Your Name]

[Your Job Title]

[Company Name]