

Reference Letter for Immigration Application: Family Sponsorship Sample

Date: [Insert Date]

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter in support of the immigration application of [Applicant's Full Name], who is seeking to be sponsored by their family member, [Sponsor's Full Name]. My name is [Your Name], and I have known the applicant and their family for [number] years as a [relation: friend, colleague, community member, etc.].

Over the years, I have witnessed the strong and genuine bond between [Applicant's Name] and [Sponsor's Name]. They share a close-knit relationship characterized by mutual care, respect, and commitment. I have seen them support each other through various life events, and it is evident that their relationship is built on a strong foundation of love and responsibility.

[Applicant's Name] has always demonstrated integrity, kindness, and dedication towards their family and community. They are respected by peers and are always willing to lend a helping hand. I am confident in their good intentions regarding their move, as their primary goal is to reunite and build a future with their family in [destination country].

Both [Applicant's Name] and [Sponsor's Name] have told me about their plans to reside together at [residence address, if known], and to contribute positively to the Canadian society. The sponsor has a stable job and the means to support [Applicant's Name] during their adaptation period.

Based on my close knowledge of this family and their deep, genuine relationship, I sincerely vouch for the authenticity of this sponsorship. I believe that granting immigration status to [Applicant's Name] will not only reunite their family but also benefit our community.
