Dear [Teacher's Name],

I am writing this letter to sincerely apologize for my actions during the incident that occurred on [date of incident]. I deeply regret my behavior and the physical altercation that took place between us in school.

I fully acknowledge that my actions were inappropriate and unacceptable. There is no justification for my behavior, and I am truly sorry for any pain, distress, or harm I may have caused you personally and to the school environment as a whole. I understand that as a student, it is my responsibility to respect my teachers and maintain a positive and safe atmosphere in the classroom.

I take complete responsibility for my actions and have reflected seriously on the incident. I now recognize the consequences of my behavior, and I assure you that this is not a reflection of my true character or values. I am committed to making amends for my actions and working hard to regain your trust and the trust of the school community.

Going forward, I promise to make better choices, manage my emotions thoughtfully, and maintain respectful conduct at all times. If there are any steps I can take to make up for my actions or help resolve any remaining issues, please let me know.

Once again, I sincerely apologize for my behavior and any harm it caused. Thank you for taking the time to read my letter. I hope you can find it in your heart to forgive me and allow me the opportunity to demonstrate my commitment to improvement.

Respectfully,
