Dear Professor [Last Name],

I am writing this note to sincerely apologize for my unethical behavior during the recent classroom test. Upon reflection, I realize that my actions were unacceptable and violated the standards of academic conduct that you expect from your students and that I owe to myself and my peers.

I take full responsibility for my actions and deeply regret the poor decision I made. I understand that cheating, in any form, undermines the trust and integrity that are essential in an academic environment. I also recognize the consequences of my actions not only for myself, but for the class and for you as my professor.

Please accept my sincere apologies. I am committed to learning from this mistake and to upholding the values of honesty and integrity in all of my future academic endeavors. I assure you that this incident has been a significant lesson to me, and I will not repeat such behavior.

I hope you can forgive me for this lapse in judgment. I am willing to accept any consequences you deem appropriate and will do my utmost to regain your trust. Thank you for taking the time to read my apology, and for your understanding.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
