Dear [Applicant's Name],

Thank you very much for your enthusiastic application to the [Scholarship Name] program. We recognize the considerable effort and commitment you invested in your application and are truly impressed by your accomplishments and passion for learning.

After careful review and thoughtful deliberation, we regret to inform you that we are unable to offer you a scholarship at this time. This year, we received an extraordinary number of applications from many talented individuals, making the selection process intensely competitive and challenging.

Please know that this decision does not diminish the value of your achievements. The committee was particularly impressed by [mention a specific strength or achievement from the applicant's application, e.g., your leadership in community service or your academic record in STEM subjects]. These accomplishments highlight your potential for future success.

To help you strengthen future applications, we offer the following feedback:

- [Suggestion 1]: [Concise feedback, e.g., Consider elaborating on the impact of your extracurricular projects to showcase your leadership skills.]
- [Suggestion 2]: [Concise feedback, e.g., Providing more specific examples of how you have overcome challenges may illustrate your resilience.]

We also encourage you to explore the following resources for further guidance and opportunities:

- [Resource 1, e.g., Online scholarship application tips at www.scholarshipsupport.org]
- [Resource 2, e.g., Local mentorship programs in your area]

We sincerely appreciate your interest in our program and are confident that you will continue to achieve great things in your academic journey. Please do not hesitate to reach out if you have questions, or need additional feedback or support.

We wish you all the best for your future endeavors and encourage you to reapply in the future.

With warm regards,
