

Hey [Friend's Name],

Hope you're doing awesome! I just had to write to you about my beach holiday - trust me, you would've loved every second.

The moment I arrived, the golden sandy shore just took my breath away. Seriously, the beach was so endless, and the waves sounded so calming. I spent most mornings just lying on the sand, soaking up the sunshine and listening to the waves. Remember how we used to race to the water? It totally made me think of you!

There were so many fun things to try - I finally tried paddle boarding (and, of course, fell off a few times). I even joined a beach volleyball game and ended up making some friends from different countries. We laughed so much my cheeks hurt. Wish you were here to join in!

The food here is out of this world! Fresh seafood, tropical fruits, and there's this little shack that makes the best coconut ice cream ever. I'm definitely bringing you here next time just for that.

Honestly, it's been such a relaxing escape. Walking along the shore at sunset makes everything feel magical. I really miss having you here - trips are just not the same without my partner in crime.

Can't wait to catch up and tell you all the little stories. Let's plan our next holiday together, okay?

Miss you loads!
