

Dear Uncle Raj,

I hope this letter finds you in good health and high spirits. It's been a while since we last caught up, so I thought I'd write to share some exciting news about my upcoming holidays!

This summer, our family is planning a trip to Goa. I can hardly wait! We'll be leaving next Saturday and spending a whole week there. I've always wanted to visit the beautiful beaches and try the delicious seafood I've heard so much about. Mum says we'll also be exploring some old forts and churches, and Dad has promised to take us on a boat ride to spot dolphins. I'm really looking forward to building sandcastles with my little sister, and maybe even learning to surf.

We've also planned a few fun activities for the evenings. There will be bonfires at the beach, music, and perhaps some karaoke if I'm feeling brave enough! We're packing lots of board games and books, so there won't be a dull moment. I'm especially excited about trying Goan cuisine-it'll be an adventure for my taste buds!

Once we're back, I'd love to visit you and share all the stories and photos from our trip. I hope you might also have some travel stories to tell me! If you have any suggestions for places to visit in Goa or activities to try, please let me know.

Take care and give my regards to Aunty. Looking forward to seeing you soon!

With love,
Aryan
