

Hey [Friend's Name],

Happy holidays! ☀️, I can't believe another year has gone by already. I was just thinking about those times we used to [insert fun memory, e.g., build snow forts, watch holiday movies, bake cookies] together-feels like forever ago!

How have you been? I miss our long chats and random adventures. Things here have been pretty good; [share a life update, e.g., "work's been hectic, but I managed to squeeze in a little vacation last month"]. I wish we could catch up in person-it's just not the same without you.

The holidays are definitely different when you're far away from people you care about, but sending you all the festive vibes possible from here! I hope you get plenty of time to relax and do the things that make you happy. Any fun plans for New Year's?

Let's try to plan a trip or at least a video call soon. I'd love to hear all about what you've been up to and maybe start planning our next reunion (2025 is our year!).

Miss you tons and thinking of you! Wishing you love, laughter, and lots of cookies this holiday season.

Take care,
