To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter in support of the spouse visa application for [Applicant's Full Name] and [Sponsor's Full Name]. I have known [Applicant's First Name] and [Sponsor's First Name] for [duration] and can confidently attest to the genuine and loving nature of their relationship.

I first met them [describe how and when you met the couple], and I have since witnessed their relationship develop and grow stronger over the years. They share a deep bond, mutual respect, and unwavering commitment to each other. [Share one or two personal anecdotes highlighting the authenticity and love in their relationship. For example: "I remember attending their wedding, where I saw the heartfelt vows they exchanged and the joy they share together."]

Both [Applicant's First Name] and [Sponsor's First Name] are individuals of excellent character. [Applicant's First Name] has always been kind, honest, and dependable. Likewise, [Sponsor's First Name] is well-respected and caring. Together, they create a supportive and nurturing environment, and it is clear to everyone around them how much they care for one another.

It is my sincerest belief that their marriage is genuine, and their intent to build a life together is authentic. I wholeheartedly support their application for a spouse visa and strongly recommend that their application be approved.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you need any further information or clarification regarding this matter.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
