

Sample Rejection Letter for Manuscript Submission

Date: [Insert Date]

Dear [Author Name],

Thank you for submitting your manuscript entitled "[Manuscript Title]" (Manuscript ID: [XXXXXX]) to [Journal Name]. We appreciate the opportunity to consider your work.

After a thorough evaluation process and careful consideration of the reviewers' comments, we regret to inform you that we are unable to accept your manuscript for publication in our journal. The decision is based on several substantive concerns raised during peer review, including:

- Issues related to study design, such as [e.g., lack of control group, inadequate sample size]
- Concerns regarding data analysis, including [e.g., insufficient statistical power, unclear methodology]
- Questions about the overall relevance and significance of the findings to our readership

Although your work addresses an important topic, the reviewers feel that these issues significantly limit the contribution of the manuscript in its current form. Detailed feedback from the reviewers is provided below to help guide any future revisions or submissions.

We encourage you to carefully consider the reviewers' comments should you decide to revise the manuscript for submission to another journal or for resubmission after substantial revision.

Thank you again for considering [Journal Name] for the publication of your research. We wish you the very best with your future scholarly activities.

Sincerely,
[Editor's Name]
