

Dear Team,

I wanted to extend my heartfelt thanks to each of you for the wonderful retirement gift. It was incredibly thoughtful, and I truly appreciate all the time, effort, and consideration that went into selecting it. Knowing it came from such a fantastic group of colleagues makes it even more meaningful.

I am grateful for the many memories we've shared, the support you've shown me throughout my career, and your kindness as I prepare for this new chapter. Your generosity and well wishes have made this milestone all the more special, and I will always cherish both the gift and our time together.

Thank you again for your thoughtfulness and for making my retirement such a memorable occasion. I wish all of you continued success and happiness in the years ahead.

With warm regards,
