Dear [Applicant Name],

Thank you very much for your recent application to the [Name of Grant Program] at [Organization Name]. We appreciate the time, energy, and creativity you invested in sharing your project proposal with us.

After thorough review by our selection committee, we regret to inform you that your application was not selected for funding during this grant cycle. Please know that this decision in no way diminishes the value of your artistic vision or the potential impact of your work. Unfortunately, we received a large number of high-quality submissions, and we were unable to fund many worthwhile projects due to limited resources.

We encourage you not to be discouraged by this outcome. Feedback from our reviewers indicates that your strengths included [insert brief positive feedback, e.g., "a compelling project concept and a clear passion for community engagement."]. To strengthen future applications, we encourage you to consider [insert constructive suggestion, e.g., "elaborating on your project timeline, providing a more detailed budget breakdown, or clarifying your intended outcomes."].

If you are interested in reapplying in the future, we welcome your updated proposal. We also suggest exploring alternative funding opportunities, such as:

- [Alternative Grant Source #1]
- [Alternative Grant Source #2]
- [Community Arts Fund or Local Council Programs]

Should you wish to discuss your application or seek further feedback, please feel free to reach out to us at [contact email/phone].

Thank you again for your dedication to the arts, and we hope you will keep us updated on your artistic journey. We look forward to the possibility of supporting your work in the future.

With best wishes,
