

Hey [Friend's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well! I just got back from my winter holiday, and I couldn't wait to tell you all about it. It was honestly such an amazing trip-wish you could have been there with me!

The whole place was covered in a thick blanket of snow. The scenery was absolutely magical-just like a winter wonderland. We spent most mornings skiing down the slopes; I fell a couple of times (no surprise there), but by the end of the trip, I was almost a pro. We even tried building a giant snowman in front of the cabin-he looked a bit goofy, but I think he had a lot of character!

Evenings were the best. After a long day outside, we'd gather around the fireplace with big mugs of hot chocolate and tell stories or play board games. Sometimes, we'd watch the snow fall from the window and just chat for hours. It was so cozy and relaxing.

One night, there was a huge winter festival in the village nearby. There were twinkling lights everywhere, people singing carols, and the most delicious food stalls. I tried roasted chestnuts for the first time-they were surprisingly good!

I really wish you could have joined us. Maybe next year, we can plan a trip together. Tell me how your holidays went! Can't wait to catch up soon.

Take care and stay warm!

Your friend,
