Dear [Applicant's Name],

Thank you for your interest in the [Program Name] MBA program at [University/School Name] and for the time and effort you invested in your application. We appreciate your desire to become a part of our academic community.

After careful consideration, we regret to inform you that we are unable to offer you admission to the MBA program for the [Year] academic year. The selection process was highly competitive, with a large number of outstanding candidates vying for a limited number of spots.

We recognize the qualities and potential you demonstrated in your application, and although we cannot offer you admission at this time, we would like to invite you to reapply for the next admission cycle. Many successful applicants in past years have strengthened their applications and received admission upon reapplying.

If you choose to apply again, we encourage you to:

- Reflect on ways to enhance your academic or professional experience.
- Consider any feedback provided and address suggested areas for growth.
- Update your application materials to reflect new achievements or experiences.

Our next application cycle opens on [Date], and detailed information regarding deadlines and requirements can be found on our admissions website at [Website URL].

We appreciate your interest in [University/School Name] and wish you every success in your personal and professional endeavors. Please do not hesitate to contact our admissions office at [Contact Information] if you have any questions or require further guidance about the reapplication process.

Sincerely,

[Admissions Committee Name]
