Dear [Applicant's Name],

Thank you very much for applying for the [Name of Scholarship] and for sharing your academic achievements, aspirations, and personal story with us. We truly appreciate the time, effort, and passion you have invested throughout the application process.

After careful and thoughtful consideration of an impressive pool of applicants, we regret to inform you that we are unable to offer you the [Name of Scholarship] this year. This decision is by no means a reflection of your abilities or potential, but rather a result of the highly competitive nature of this selection process and the limited number of scholarships available.

We were genuinely impressed by your accomplishments thus far and the vision you have for your future. Your dedication and drive are commendable, and we believe you have the potential to achieve great things. While we are unable to support you through this particular opportunity, we strongly encourage you to continue pursuing your academic and professional goals with the same enthusiasm and perseverance you have already demonstrated.

Please remember that every setback is an opportunity for growth and learning. Your unique strengths and insights will serve you well as you move forward, and we are confident that you will find other avenues to support your remarkable journey. If you would like feedback on your application or guidance on future scholarship opportunities, please do not hesitate to contact us at [Contact Information].

We wish you the very best in all your endeavors and look forward to hearing about your future achievements.

With warm regards,
