Subject: Decision on Manuscript Submission [Manuscript ID/Title]

Dear [Author's Name],

Thank you for submitting your manuscript, "[Manuscript Title]," to [Journal Name]. We appreciate the opportunity to review your work and your interest in publishing with us.

During our review process, the editorial team and peer reviewers identified significant ethical concerns associated with your submission. Specifically, the following issues were noted:

- [Example: Evidence of plagiarism detected within the manuscript]
- [Example: Data fabrication or manipulation]
- [Example: Undisclosed conflicts of interest]

In accordance with our journal's publication ethics and standards, we are unable to proceed with the consideration of your manuscript. Upholding ethical standards is fundamental to scholarly publishing, and these standards guide our editorial decisions to ensure the integrity of the research we disseminate.

We encourage you to carefully review the issues noted above and address them fully before considering submission to any journal in the future. If you have questions about these concerns or wish to appeal this decision, you may contact the editorial office at [Editorial Office Email]. Please understand that such appeals must be accompanied by a comprehensive explanation and supporting documentation.

Thank you again for considering [Journal Name] as a venue for your research. We hope this feedback will assist you in maintaining the highest ethical standards in your future academic endeavors.

Sincerely,

[Editor's Name]
