Dear [Applicant Name],

This letter serves as a formal notification of your application status, informing you that your college admission has been rejected due to a low GPA. While we acknowledge your efforts and achievements, the academic standards for admission require a higher grade point average to ensure preparedness for the rigorous coursework.

We understand that this news may come as a disappointment, but we encourage you to continue striving for academic excellence. There are numerous opportunities to improve your academic record, and we welcome you to consider reapplying in the future after meeting the required criteria.

Alternatively, you may wish to explore other educational pathways and institutions that align with your current qualifications and goals. We are confident that with continued dedication and hard work, you will find success in your academic journey.

We appreciate your interest in [College/University Name] and wish you the very best in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

[Admissions Officer Name]
