

Dear [Applicant's Name],

Thank you for your interest in the [Scholarship Name] and for the effort you put into your application. We truly appreciate your dedication to your academic journey and the time you invested in sharing your story and achievements with us.

After careful consideration, we regret to inform you that we are unable to offer you a scholarship this year. We understand that this news may be disappointing, but we want to remind you that this decision is in no way a reflection of your value or potential. The selection process was highly competitive, and we were inspired by the passion and commitment demonstrated by all our applicants.

Although you have not been selected on this occasion, we encourage you to continue striving towards your goals. Every setback is an opportunity to learn, grow, and build resilience. Remember, many successful individuals have faced rejection before achieving their dreams. Let this experience fuel your determination to seek new opportunities and expand your skills and experiences.

We are grateful for your interest in our program and wish you every success as you pursue your educational and personal ambitions. If you choose to apply again in the future, we would be honored to consider your application.

Keep believing in yourself and your abilities. The path to success is rarely straightforward, but with perseverance and a positive mindset, you can achieve great things.

With best wishes for your future endeavors,

[Your Name]
