- Failure to provide required documents may result in revocation of admission.

4. Deferral and Withdrawal Policy:

- Requests to defer admission must be submitted in writing by [Deferral Request Deadline] and are subject to approval and applicable fees.
- Withdrawal from the program after enrollment may result in forfeiture of partial or full tuition depending on the timing, as per institutional policy.

5. Academic Conduct and Attendance:

- You are expected to adhere to the institution's academic integrity, code of conduct, and attendance policies outlined in the student handbook.
- Failure to comply with these policies may lead to academic probation, suspension, or expulsion.

6. Other Relevant Policies:

- Your admission is conditional upon continued good standing and the accuracy of all information provided during the application process.
- Any false information or omissions may result in the withdrawal of this offer or dismissal from the institution.

Please review all terms carefully. By confirming your acceptance and completing the enrollment process, you agree to adhere to the above terms and conditions and all additional policies set forth by [Institution Name].

If you have questions regarding this offer or any terms, please contact [Admissions Office Contact Information].

Sincerely,
