

Character Reference Letter for Adoption Proceedings

A character reference letter for adoption proceedings is a formal document written by a trusted individual to support an adoption applicant by highlighting their positive qualities, responsible nature, and suitability as an adoptive parent. This letter typically includes specific examples of the applicant's kindness, stability, and ability to provide a loving home, which helps the court or adoption agency make an informed decision. For example, a letter might describe the applicant's dedication to family values, compassionate interactions with children, and responsible lifestyle, thereby reinforcing their capability to offer a nurturing environment for the child.

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter to wholeheartedly support the adoption application of John and Emily Brown. I have known the Browns for over ten years as a neighbor and friend. During this time, they have consistently shown exceptional kindness, responsibility, and a genuine dedication to building a nurturing home.

Both John and Emily are compassionate, patient, and reliable individuals. I have observed them interact with my own children, always demonstrating patience and a sincere interest in their well-being. For instance, when my daughter was struggling with a move to a new school, Emily volunteered to help her adjust by inviting her to family gatherings and providing much-needed support and reassurance.

John and Emily value family deeply and have created a warm, stable, and welcoming environment in their home. I am confident that any child adopted into their family will grow up surrounded by love, security, and opportunity.

I highly recommend John and Emily Brown as adoptive parents. Please feel free to contact me if there are any further questions.

Sincerely,

Jane Smith
