

Hey [Friend's Name],

How have you been? I hope you had an amazing time on your recent vacation! I've been really looking forward to hearing all about your adventures and seeing the incredible places you visited.

If you've got some spare time, could you send me some of your vacation pictures? I'd love to see all the beautiful spots you went to and relive those moments through your photos. I'm sure you have some epic stories behind each picture, and I can't wait to laugh and reminisce together.

Let's catch up soon-and don't forget, I want to see everything! ðŹŹ
