

Hey Emily,

I hope you're doing well! I just got back from the most amazing holiday and I couldn't wait to tell you all about it. We went to the seaside town of Brighton and it was even better than I imagined!

From the moment we arrived, the weather was perfect-sunny with a gentle breeze coming off the sea. The first thing we did was head straight to the pier. You know how much I love carnival rides, so of course, I dragged everyone onto the Ferris wheel. The view across the ocean was breathtaking and made me forget about everything else for a while.

One of the highlights was our trip to the old Royal Pavilion. I couldn't believe how grand everything was inside, with rooms decorated in the most amazing colors and patterns. Later, we walked along the narrow lanes filled with quirky little shops-there was this tiny cafÃ© where we tried the best scones ever!

Most evenings, we'd just relax on the beach, watching the sunset and snacking on fish and chips. It was so nice to unwind and joke around with everyone, especially after such a busy year.

I took loads of photos and can't wait to show you. Maybe next year we could plan a trip together-what do you think? Anyway, let me know what you've been up to lately. Miss you lots!

Take care,
Sarah
